Dean, Yale School of Music, 1904-1919

Opening Hymn No. 26: “O God, Beneath Thy Guiding Hand”
Duke Street

1. O God, beneath thy guiding hand
our exiled forebears crossed the sea;
and when they trod the wintry strand,
with prayer and psalm they worshiped thee.

2. Thou heard’st, well pleased, the song, the prayer:
thy blessing came; and still its power shall onward, through all ages, bear the memory of that holy hour.

3. Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God came with those exiles o’er the waves;
and where their pilgrim feet have trod,
the God they trusted guards their graves.

4. And here thy name, O god of love,
their children’s children shall adore,
till these eternal hills remove,
and spring adorns the earth no more.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
(All) He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside still waters.
He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.
(All) Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
(All) Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Reading from the Book of Ecclesiasticus 44:1-10

Kaddish (Hebrew Memorial Prayer)

Let the glory of God be extolled, let His great name be hallowed, in the world whose creation
He willed. May His kingdom soon prevail, in our own day, our own lives and the life of all Israel, and let us say: Amen

Let His great name be blessed for ever and ever.

Let the name of the Holy One, blessed is He, be glorified, exalted and honored, though He is beyond all the praises, songs, and adorations that we can utter, and let us say: Amen.

For us and for all Israel, may the blessing of peace, and the promise of life come true, and let us say: Amen

May He who causes peace to reign in the high heavens, let peace descend on us, on all Israel and all the world, and let us say: Amen

May the Source of peace send peace to all who mourn, and comfort to all who are bereaved. Amen.

Litany of Thanksgiving and Remembrance (Responsively, Standing)

Almighty God, maker of heaven and earth, creator of all things,
We turn to you for comfort in loss, strength in perseverance, and hope for the future.

(All) Hear our prayer, gracious God.

For classmates who have gone before us. For the gifts of friendship that never end.
For the joys and sorrows we have shared together.

(All) We give you thanks, O God.

For their courage in darkness, strength in adversity, and for the peace that is now theirs.

(All) We give you thanks, O God.

For the contributions that they made in college and in the years beyond, to their communities, the nation, and the world.

(All) We give you thanks, O God.

In thanksgiving may we carry on the work they began, and rejoice in our memories of them.

(All) Hear our prayer, gracious God.

For those left behind, parents, wives, partners, children, family and friends, that they may be sustained in their grief by your abiding care and comforted by the love that transcends death.

(All) Hear our prayer, gracious God.

Time for Silent Reflection
Hymn No. 205: “O God, Our Help in Ages Past”

1. O God, our help in ages past,
   Under the shadow of thy throne
   our hope, for years to come,
   thy saints have dwelt secure;
   our shelter from the stormy blast,
   sufficient is thine arm alone,
   and our eternal home.
   and our defense is sure.

2. Before the hills in order stood,
   A thousand ages in thy sight
   or earth received her frame,
   are like an evening gone;
   from everlasting thou art God,
   short as the watch that ends the night
   to endless years the same.
   before the rising sun.

3. Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
   O God, our help in ages past,
   bears all our years away;
   our hope for years to come,
   they fly, forgotten, as a dream be thou our guide while life shall last,
   dies at the opening day.
   and our eternal home.

4. O God, our help in ages past,
   O God, our help in ages past,

Benediction

The Lord bless you and keep you,
The Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you.
The Lord lift up the light of his countenance upon you,
And give you, our loved ones, and our honored dead,
Peace, this day, and forever.

(All) Amen.
